

Healthy Food Access Workshop Series Healthy Corner Store Initiatives

Teamwork Englewood
815 W. 63rd Street

March 30, 2016

- 9:30 - 10:00AM      Registration, Networking, and Continental Breakfast
- 10:00 - 10:15AM      Welcome & CLOCC Healthy Corner Store Initiative Overview
- Dominique Johnson, Community Programs Coordinator
Consortium to Lower Obesity in Chicago Children (CLOCC)
- Elizabeth Edmonds, Healthy Corner Store Coordinator
Consortium to Lower Obesity in Chicago Children (CLOCC)
- 10:15 - 11:00AM      Panel – Panelists will have 5 minutes to speak, plus 20 minutes at the end for group Q & A
- Fred Carter, President & Executive Director
The Black Oaks Center for Sustainable Renewable Living
- Sara Hamdan, Muslim Run Corner Store Manager & Organizer
Inner-City Muslim Action Network (IMAN)
- Johnnie L. Owens, Director of Community Building
Centers for New Horizons
- Lubna Saleh, Food Retail Health Education Specialist
Chicago Partnership for Health Promotion at the University of Illinois at Chicago
- Ally Young, Hands-On Owner and Communications Coordinator
The Dill Pickle Food Co-Op
- 11:00AM - 12:00PM      Mini Roundtable Sessions with Panelists – Sessions will rotate every 20 minutes
- Session Topics:
- Community Engagement & Nutrition Education* - Lubna Saleh and Sarah Purcell, Chicago Partnership for Health Promotion at the University of Illinois at Chicago
- Urban Agriculture and Produce Distribution* - Johnnie L. Owens, Centers for New Horizons
- Building Healthy Hubs for Food Distribution* - Fred Carter, The Black Oaks Center for Sustainable Renewable Living
- Store Owner Engagement in the Local Community* - Sara Hamdan, Inner-City Muslim Action Network (IMAN)
- Alternative Market Model and Food Justice* - Ally Young, The Dill Pickle Food Co-Op

Thank you for attending!

Please make sure to return your completed evaluation before leaving.